

Please be cautious in considering this proposal. Insure that if it is indeed written and intent on passing that it does not impact citizens' rights in a negative way. I would prefer that such measures are not even considered as they appear to be nothing more than undue appeasement to corporations who do not have anything but their own monetary interests at heart. Thanks for your time and good luck in making this fair for all parties involved.